From Pony Club to the Paralympics

As the 2020 Tokyo Paralympics get underway this week, Pony Club members around the country will be cheering on our four equestrian Paralympians, who all started their careers in Pony Club.

They are an inspiration not only to all our members with a disability, but to all Pony Club members.

Paralympic Equestrians and their start:

Sharon Jarvis - Capel Horse and Pony Club

Emma Booth - Upper Pakenham Pony Club

Victoria Davies - Shoalhaven Pony Club

Amelia White - Orange Pony Club (below)

Amelia is pictured here at Pony Club and more recently. She is now 29 and a lawyer. She moved overseas to pursue her dream. Her favourite quote is: "Ride for you. It's your moment. Take it with both hands, and simply ride." (Paralympics Australia)
